[Verse 1]
Do you know how blessed you are
That luckily you've come so far
You've already known it for so long
It's quoted in almost every song
Even if you're however torn apart
Cherish that you've had it there in your heart

[Verse 2]
I wish I knew how blessed it feels Wondering if this will ever be real
Losing hope to ever know
If a song like this ever shows
Even if we were however torn apart
I'd cherish being granted to feel it in my heart

[Chorus]
Imagine living a life without
Being left alone with doubt
Imagine living a life in need
Waiting for one growing seed

[Bridge]
If you know the bank always wins
Then why gamble
If you know the spark to find is so very small
Then why light it

[Chorus]
Imagine living a life without
Being left alone with doubt
Imagine living a life in need
Waiting for one growing seed

[Outro]
so lucky you knew it so lucky you felt it
